SIR,

I have the honor to acknowledge receipt of drawing for the new design for the border for the Government Art Calendar for 1916, which has been approved by His Highness the Maharaja.

Will you kindly note that it is not possible, for want of time, to use it for 1916. The design has to be carefully redrawn by the Artist, and then sent to England for for engraving. At the earliest we could not expect it back before the middle of January, and then it would take some days to print

It is the particular wish of the Palace, as expressed last year, that Calendars should be out by Christmas. This gives me no alternative but to postpone the use of the new design until the following year
